Scoutmaster's Corner

Dear Troop 314,

This month marks the end of the 3rd year that I have been Scoutmaster of this troop. While I am happy to continue in this capacity into a 4th year, we are in need of a volunteer to succeed Mr. Hilton as our Troop Committee Chair.

Mike has suggested that I would make a suitable candidate, but if I did that, we'd need a new Scoutmaster. If anybody would like to inquire about what it would entail, feel free to pull me aside at any meeting or activity. I would be happy to mentor a successor.

I expect to be here for a few more years, and would like to do whatever I can to see that Troop 314 remains healthy and vibrant well into the future. Or, as an alternative, I could remain as Scoutmaster, and we find a successor to the Committee Chair.

I am sure that Mr. Hilton would be willing to mentor his successor as much as his busy schedule permits.

Please consider volunteering for this valuable service to the troop, even if you never considered it before.

Looking back on 2014, it has been a rewarding year, but we unfortunately did not gain very many members, while we lost several. Some aged out, some dropped out for personal reasons, two moved, and some just went inactive to pursue different endeavors. This is all normal for most troops, but usually we gain enough new scouts to make up for attrition. These usually come from the Webelos of the troop's "feeder pack", but this time ours did not have any Webelos 2's to bridge over.

However, in the past half year or so, we have made a concerted effort to plan activities around the Cub Scouts, starting with the Belt Loop day in June, and ending with the Halloween party in October.

These should all have a very positive effect in attracting Webelos to our troop. We need to continue in this effort, and make it a part of our annual program.

Speaking of our annual program, we need to do something we haven't done in several years -- have an annual program planning meeting. This involves both the adults and youth leaders, and lays out the framework of our activities for the coming year, including, wherever possible, assigning adults to oversee each event.

See this web page for lots of great information on the planning conference:

<http://www.scouting.org/scoutsource/BoyScouts/ProgramPlanning.aspx>

Keep watching your email for an announcement of this important meeting!

I hope everyone has a safe and joyous holiday season. I'm looking forward to the Court of Honor with installation of new youth leaders, and our appetizer/dessert potluck with Secret Santa!

Happy Holidays,

Richard Marubayashi, Scoutmaster, Troop 314

SPL's Corner

Dear Troop 314,

This is the last time I will be writing in the newsletter as SPL. I do not expect to be praised as the best SPL the troop has ever known, but I hope I lived up to your expectations, and did a satisfactory job.

For the past several years, I have never been without a position of responsibility. I will be aging out in less than a year, so I will not be taking another position of responsibility, and this is also a partial goodbye. My brother will still be in the troop for several more years, so I am sure to see some of you on a rare occasion, but I will most likely be quite preoccupied with school and college.

Additionally, after I have stepped down, I will likely be busy with reaching Eagle. Even though there were many things I did not enjoy about Boy Scouts, overall, I very much enjoyed it, and I feel that it was all worth it, especially if I can make Eagle before I age out.

I hope that you all feel the same way I do, and that none of you think of Scouts as just a chore that your parents forced you into. I don't mean to be rude or anything, but judging by the state of the troop as it is right now, I am concerned about its future. I hope you all step up, take positions of responsibility and do a great job! There's an old story about the troop that has been around ever since my older brother joined. Supposedly, at one point in its roughly fifty years, Troop 314 was down to only a single scout. Imagine the recruiting he must have done and the dedication he must have had to keep this troop alive. It would have been so easy for him to just give up and age out, allowing the troop to disappear, but he didn't.

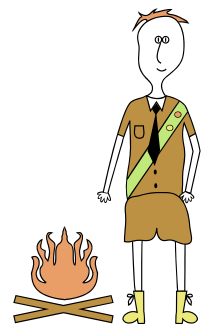

I don't want that story to repeat itself. I won't lie. Positions of responsibility are pains in the rear. But they're also fun, and worth it. You feel a sense of pride in leading the troop, and the satisfaction of keeping everything running smoothly. It's overwhelming at times, and you don't always know what you're getting yourself into, but sometimes, you have to get out of the kiddie pool and dive off the deep end to learn how to swim.

To whoever is to succeed me, I hope you do an even better job of it than I have, and enjoy yourself doing it. This troop will fall apart without strong, motivated leadership, as well as scouts.

Goodbye, and please take care of the troop,

Ian M.

Robert's Eagle Service Project November Sundays 16th and 23rd.

Hello Troop 314. I would like to personally THANK YOU for all your hard work in support of my Eagle Service Project on November 16th and 23rd.

As you may know, I am building 6 benches for the front (outside) of our Buena Park public Library. As of this newsletter all six of the benches are done!!! This took almost two months of work.

I have been going to this library since I was too young to walk and I am a big fan of our great librarians - so this is a special project to be able to give back something to them.

Over 100 pieces of wood were sanded and varnished in those weekends. Along with all the sanding and multiple coats of varnish our scouts have done, the adult volunteers have made 5 of the decks for the benches.

I really appreciate your help from all the Scout Parents and Scouts. These benches are a pretty complex design and this makes for a labor intensive project, so I could not have got this far without all your help!

Hopefully in December we will be able to install the benches and Library patrons can start enjoying them!!!

All set up and ready for Webelos and their parents!

Patrol Advisors

Patrol Advisors help the Patrol Leader guide the patrol and improve their leadership skills.

The patrol leader should check with their advisor to plan patrol meetings and activities. If possible, the advisor should be present at patrol breakouts
during the meeting to help plans go smoothly, and to oversee menus and other scout planning events.

Meeting Night Patrols

Skill Patrol Leaders remember when you are planning the skills for the meeting, make sure that two levels of Skills should be worked out and that they are appropriate to the Troop Program Features Theme. It is best that everyone is (and can be) involved. When possible – see if a competition or game & competition can be made out of your skills.

The patrol that has flag ceremony /setup / cleanup should show up by 6:45pm (earlier if it's a court of honor). It's the patrol leader's responsibility to make sure they do. This means picking up the phone to confirm communication received and understood. Email or text are OK, but are not a substitute for direct bi-directional voice communication – a confirmed Phone message – read back of message might be good idea too.

No one in the patrol should leave until everything is cleaned up and put away, or the patrol leader releases them.

Dutch Oven Cooking is only done during specified meetings. For example, Hot dogs and cooking are usually done when we have Webelos visit.

At Crystal Lake there is a cafe that serves hot food and drinks, but does not have the ability to accept payment by credit or debit cards. They can only accept cash and checks, but what if you're short on cash and you don't have your checkbook with you?

Believe it or not, the owner, Adam, will trust you to send your payment by mail later. He doesn't ask for collateral or even identification. He has been known to feed weary cyclists who forgot to bring money, trusting them to pay by mail or the next time they come up.

This was amazing to me and Mr. Tran and Mr. Pearson. This just doesn't happen very often, and when it does, it reaffirms your faith in people, as Adam has not lost his faith in people.

- No meetings are usually held on 5th Tuesday. These are saved for Fundraisers e.g.: Dinners.

Court of Honors are held 4 times a year, every three months – usually the last Scout meeting of month (except December).

In March and September Scouts are honored for their rank advancements with a candle lighting ceremony and parents are given pins. This tends to be a long ceremony, so no dinners.

In June and December, our COH does not have candles and rank advancement pins for parents, but we add a potluck dinner in June – (Optional potluck in Dec. usually kept simple due to constraints on time and sanity).

Work Lost Valley This Summer!

Lost Valley's summer camp staff members are at least 16 years of age, some areas require older staff. There is also a Counselor in Training (C.I.T.) position for youth who are 14 and 15 years old. All staff are housed in cabins with heat, electricity, bunk beds, and shared drawers/storage lockers. Staff are fed three meals per day in our dining halls.

Some Program Areas require staff to be over 18 and most Area Directors must be over 18 or over 21.
